CANADIAN TRICKED BY JAPAN THEY SAY

REPUTATION OF ASSURANCES TO LIMIT IMMIGRATION EMBAR-RASSMENT GOVERNMENT.

OTTAWA, (Ont.) December 27.—The point about which there is the most speculation in Ottawa is whether article one of the Japanese treaty, with its sweeping permission to Japanese to enter Canada on the same footing as Canadians, does not override the right of the Canadian government to impose conditions in regard to immigration.

This view is held by Conservatives and was expressed by Mr. Monk lately in the House, who says the Japanese have absolute control of the situation. He denies the right of parliament to pass an alien labor law directed against Japan, or to keep out undesirable Japanese to the same extent as British immigrants are excluded.

The reply made by Mr. Duncan Ross is that by international law every nation has an indefeasible right to control immigration.

Conservatives rejoice that Canada signed away this right, pointing out that the United States Government thought it necessary, when negotiating a similar treaty, to expressly reserve rights over immigration.

Recent dispatches from Tokio indicate that the Japanese government not only takes this view, but holds that its undertaking on the subject prior to the conclusion of the treaty was thereby nullified. Should this prove to be the case the Liberal members from British Columbia, who assert that they were induced by these pre-treaty assurances to acquiesce in the ratification of the convention, will be in the position of having been tricked, and so—if their account of the situation is correct—will the government of Canada.

When the House resumes after the Christmas vacation it seems that the government will be in the unpleasant position of having to attempt the defense of either a calculated misrepresentation or a deliberate breach of faith.

Hon. T. Nason, consul-general of Japan, denies that he assured the prime minister before the Japanese treaty came up in the House that the government of Japan was pledged to permit no more than six hundred Japanese to emigrate to Canada each year.
